

WEBINAR: KEY ISSUES TO WATCH AT COP29

Presented by:

RINGO
Constituency

 Second Nature

UC³

University Climate Change Coalition

Join Us for an Engaging COP29 Discussion!

We invite you to an upcoming webinar co-hosted by Second Nature, the University Climate Change Coalition (UC3), and the Research and Independent Non-Governmental Organizations (RINGO) constituency. This engaging session will cover critical issues on the negotiation agenda at COP29, set to take place in Baku, Azerbaijan.

Webinar Details:

Date: Thursday, October 24

Time: 8:00 am - 9:30 am EDT

Scan to register!

The Webinar will Focus on the Following Key Issues:

- New Collective Quantified Goal:
Eda Kosma, C2ES
- Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) & Biennial Transparency Reports (BTRs):
Melissa Low, National University of Singapore
- Progress Toward the Loss and Damage Fund:
Jhalak Aggarwal, The Council on Energy, Environment and Water
- Global Goal on Adaptation:
Danielle Falzon, Rutgers University
- Crunch Issues for International Carbon Markets Under Article 6:
Axel Michaelowa, Perspectives Climate Research & University of Zurich

Scan to Watch Previous COP Webinars:

Overview of the UNFCCC
Negotiation Process and Structure

Engaging with the UNFCCC:
COPs, Bodies, and Issues